JURISDICTION AND VENUE

23 15. Subject matter jurisdiction is appropriate to this Court under 28 U.S.C.
24 §§ 1331 and 1338 because this action arises under the Copyright Laws of the 25 United States (17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq.), and this Court has supplemental 26 jurisdiction over any related state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1337.

27 16. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants in that, among 28 other things, Defendants' conduct caused injury to APM and its intellectual

1 property within the State of California through the exploitation of the Recordings
2 on YouTube, Instagram, and Facebook, all California-based companies, accessible 3 to California-based consumers. Additionally, Defendants (a) regularly do or solicit 4 business in the State of California, (b) engage in a persistent course of conduct in 5 the State of California, (c) derive substantial revenue from consumers located in the 6 State of California, (d) expect or should reasonably expect their acts to have 7 consequences in the State of California, and (e) derive substantial revenue from 8 interstate commerce.

9 17. Venue is appropriate under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1400 because a 10 substantial part of the events giving rise to the claims occurred in Los Angeles 11 County, and Defendants' actions caused injury in Los Angeles County.

12 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

13 18. APM is the leading production music company in North America.
14 Production music is the name given to recorded music that is intended to be 15 licensed to customers for use in film, television, radio, and other media. With more 16 than 650,000 tracks, APM's production music catalog is the largest, deepest, and 17 broadest music collection in the production music industry. Indeed, APM's catalog 18 consists of over 50 diverse and in-demand production music libraries, including 19 KPM Music, Bruton, Sonoton, Cezame, and Kosinus. Some of APM's most well-20 known tracks are "Heavy Action" (a.k.a. The Theme for Monday Night Football), 21 "The Big One" (a.k.a. The Theme for The People's Court), and "Sweet Victory" 22 (from the SpongeBob SquarePants episode "Band of Geeks"). APM's music has 23 also been synchronized on major entertainment properties such as GLOW, This is 24 Us, Westworld, The Americans, Stranger Things, Atlanta, Game of Thrones, 25 SpongeBob SquarePants, The Ren & Stimpy Show, Lady Bird, Mudbound, The 26 Disaster Artist, The Big Sick, The Shape of Water, Call of Duty: Infinite Warfare, 27 Tom Clancy's Ghost Recon Wildlands, the Saints Row series, and MLB: The Show.

28 19. As the North American subpublisher of its highly valuable catalog,

1 which includes the Copyrights to the Recordings, APM possesses the exclusive 2 rights to record, reproduce, distribute, advertise, and otherwise exploit such 3 copyrighted works, as well as to license others to do so in exchange for the payment 4 of royalties or fees customarily associated with the issuance of such licenses.

5 20. AHL asserts that it “serves as the top development league for the 6 National Hockey League”¹ and, in its form 990 tax filings as of February 2024, 7 describes its mission as to “Promote Professional Hockey in North America,” 8 employed 207 people, and earned more than fourteen million dollars in annual 9 revenue.² It broadcasts the matches between its thirty-two teams on AHLTV, a paid 10 subscription service.³

11 21. AHL’s popularity is at an all-time high. AHL’s 2023 championship 12 series was the third to be sold out and pushed its total playoff attendance for the 13 league above half a million fans. A record, and a high-water mark for revenue 14 which the president and CEO Scott Howson is reported to estimate is 15% to 20% 15 above pre-pandemic levels.⁴

16 22. AHL, in seeking potential third-party corporate partnerships, published 17 a statement discussing the importance of social media marketing:

18 The AHL has an established presence on Facebook, Twitter,
19 YouTube, Instagram and Snapchat. With over 3.25 Million fans 20 following the AHL and its member clubs [a.k.a. teams] on social

1 media, engagement is at an all-time high.

2 The emerging importance of social media offers continuously
3 expansive opportunities for corporate partnerships.⁵

4 23. APM became aware that AHL teams, on team-specific social media
5 channels, had engaged in rampant infringement of the Recordings by exploiting 6 them in connection with numerous promotional postings (the “Infringing Videos”) 7 as listed on Exhibit 2 to the Complaint and incorporated by reference herein. The 8 team channel specific to each Defendant’s AHL team is also listed in Exhibit 2.

9 24. At no point in time did Defendants obtain APM’s license, 10 authorization, or consent to synchronize the Recordings with the Infringing Videos.
11 Moreover, despite being repeatedly contacted by APM regarding AHL’s unlicensed 12 uses of the Recordings, AHL has refused to obtain proper licenses or admit 13 wrongdoing.

14 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
15 DIRECT COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT
16 (Against All Defendants)

17 25. Plaintiff hereby incorporates the allegations set forth above in 18 paragraphs 1 through 14, as though fully set forth herein.

19 26. Without Plaintiff’s authorization, license, or consent, Defendants 20 reproduced, distributed, and/or publicly performed the Recordings as part of the 21 Infringing Videos, thereby infringing Plaintiff’s exclusive rights of copyright to the 22 Recordings under the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §§ 106, 501.

23 27. On information and belief, Defendants have authorized the 24 reproduction, distribution, and/or public performance of the Recordings by 25 synchronizing the Recordings with the Infringing Videos on YouTube.

26 28. Each unauthorized reproduction, distribution, and/or public

1 performance of the Infringing Videos constitutes a separate and distinct act of 2 copyright infringement of the Recordings.

3 29. Defendants' conduct has been intentional, willful, and with full 4 knowledge of Plaintiff's copyrights in the Recordings and the direct infringement 5 thereof.

6 30. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), as a direct and proximate result of 7 Defendants' direct infringement of Plaintiff's copyrights, Plaintiff is entitled to 8 recover its actual damages, including Defendants' profits from infringement, as will 9 be proven at trial. Alternatively, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c), Plaintiff is entitled 10 to recover up to $150,000 in statutory damages per work infringed.

11 31. Plaintiff is also entitled to recover its attorneys' fees and costs pursuant 12 to 17 U.S.C. § 505, and prejudgment interest according to law.

13 32. Defendants are causing, and unless enjoined by the Court, will 14 continue to cause, Plaintiff irreparable harm for which Plaintiff has no adequate 15 remedy at law. Plaintiff is entitled to an injunction under 17 U.S.C. § 502, 16 prohibiting the continued infringement of the Recordings and an order under 17
17 U.S.C. § 503 directing the impoundment, destruction, or other reasonable 18 disposition of all infringing works, including the Infringing Videos.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

CONTRIBUTORY COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

(Against All Defendants)

22 33. Plaintiff hereby incorporates the allegations set forth above in 23 paragraphs 1 through 22, as though fully set forth herein.

24 34. Through their conduct alleged herein, Defendants knowingly and 25 systematically induced, caused, materially contributed to and participated in 26 infringing distribution by third parties of the Recordings, including, without 27 limitation, by way of reproduction, distribution, and/or public performance through 28 the YouTube platform. Specifically, by licensing to YouTube the right to

1 reproduce, distribute, and/or publicly perform the Infringing Videos, Defendants 2 induced and encouraged YouTube, Instagram, and FaceBook to directly infringe 3 Plaintiff's Copyrights.

4 35. Defendants' conduct has been and continues to be intentional, willful
5 and with full knowledge of Plaintiff's copyrights in the Recordings, and the 6 contributory infringement thereof.

7 36. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), as a direct and proximate result of 8 Defendants' contributory infringement of Plaintiff's copyrights, Plaintiff is entitled 9 to recover their actual damages, including Defendants' profits from infringement, 10 as will be proven at trial. Alternatively, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c), Plaintiff is 11 entitled to recover up to $150,000 in statutory damages per work infringed.

12 37. Plaintiff is also entitled to recover its attorneys' fees and costs pursuant 13 to 17 U.S.C. § 505, and prejudgment interest according to law.

14 38. Defendants are causing, and unless enjoined by the Court, will 15 continue to cause, Plaintiff irreparable harm for which Plaintiff has no adequate
16 remedy at law. Plaintiff is entitled to an injunction under 17 U.S.C. § 502
17 prohibiting the continued contributory infringement of the Recordings and an order 18 under 17 U.S.C. § 503 directing the impoundment, destruction or other reasonable 19 disposition of all infringing works.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

VICARIOUS COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

(Against All Defendants)

23 39. Plaintiff hereby incorporates the allegations set forth above in 24 paragraphs 1 through 36, as though fully set forth herein.

25 40. Through their conduct alleged herein, Defendants knowingly and 26 systematically induced, caused, materially contributed to and participated in 27 infringing distribution by third parties of the Recordings, including, without 28 limitation, by way of reproduction, distribution, and/or public performance through

1 the various websites listed on Exhibit 1. Specifically, Defendants enjoyed a direct 2 financial benefit from the reproduction, distribution, and/or public performance of 3 the Infringing Videos while having the right and ability to supervise the infringing 4 activity, yet failed to exercise that right and ability to prevent the infringing activity.
5 Further, Defendant AHL enjoyed a direct financial benefit from the reproduction, 6 distribution, and/or public performance of the Infringing Videos perpetrated by the 7 individual team Defendants while having the right and ability to supervise the 8 infringing activity, yet failed to exercise that right and ability to prevent the 9 infringing activity.

10 41. Defendants' conduct has been and continues to be intentional, willful
11 and with full knowledge of Plaintiff's copyrights in the Recordings, and the 12 contributory infringement thereof.

13 42. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), as a direct and proximate result of 14 Defendants' vicarious infringement of Plaintiff's copyrights, Plaintiff is entitled to 15 recover their actual damages, including Defendants' profits from infringement, as 16 will be proven at trial. Alternatively, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c), Plaintiff is 17 entitled to recover up to $150,000 in statutory damages per work infringed.

18 43. Plaintiff is also entitled to recover its attorneys' fees and costs pursuant 19 to 17 U.S.C. § 505, and prejudgment interest according to law.

20 44. Defendants are causing, and unless enjoined by the Court, will 21 continue to cause, Plaintiff irreparable harm for which Plaintiff has no adequate
22 remedy at law. Plaintiff is entitled to an injunction under 17 U.S.C. § 502
23 prohibiting the continued vicarious infringement of the Recordings and an order
